Re Item V

Reasoned statement with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability;
citations and explanations supporting such statement

Novelty/Inventive step: Although a similar method is known from WO-A-98/06255 for inducing spawning of Polychaete worms of the families Nereidae and Eunicidae, WO-A-98/06255 does not disclose a exposure time of 14 to 24 days, nor is the known method described as to be applicable to marine worms of the family Arenicolidae.

The prior published documents, cited in the description or in the international search report, either taken individually or in combination do not disclose, suggest or reasonably lead the person skilled in the art to consider the methods for inducing sexual maturation as presently claimed. The person skilled in the art would not be able to combine all the features of claims 1, 3 and 6 and as such arrive at the claimed methods without an inventive activity.

Claims 2 and 8 to 10 are dependent on claim 1, claims 4 and 5 are dependent on claim 3 and claim 7 is dependent on claim 6. As such they also meet the requirements of the PCT with respect to novelty and inventive step.
